"Life is a daring adventure or it's nothing" — Helen Keller

Being a new student leader at the start of a new school year can be a daunting challenge, especially if your team is without goals or a vision of where they're going. What tools will they need for this quest? Before they set out on this important expedition, they should spend a day at base camp — learning the skills they need to survive. Our Middle School Regional Funshops are just the place to start their adventure.

OUR PRESENTER -- RUSS PEAK

Following an early interest in magic, Russ learned his craft well. As a renowned mentalist, magician and hypnotist, he has entertained many audiences around the country. He's been featured at conferences, television and corporate giants, including IBM, AT & T, Intel and Disney. His real passion is working with youth, using a mixture of magic, inspiration and fun. Russ is a member of the Society of American Magicians and Hollywood's Magic Castle, and he's certified by the National Speakers Association. Most recently, he authored "Invent Your Future," an interactive book to teach goal setting. He's always a hit when he "appears" at OASC functions!
